Who are British Bespoke Workwear?

We supply bespoke, quality workwear, manufactured in the UK

We are a family run business that was established in 1976. Our manufacturing facility is located in Leyland, Lancashire.

Our qualified in-house designers have the expertise and experience to create a product which looks and feels fantastic and above all really “fits” you and your team.

We aim to supply quality products that are:

- Great Value
- Fit for purpose
- Enhance self confidence

All fabrics are supplied by major UK suppliers, conforming to the approved British Standard for work wear.

“We can supply bespoke items, sizes and top ups without lengthy lead times”

Why British Bespoke Workwear?

- Our local manufacturing facility and design team means we can offer the most flexible, adaptable and reliable uniform solution in the market.
- We can supply bespoke items, sizes and top ups without the lengthy lead times or sizeable minimum quantities that can often be incurred when dealing with importers.
- What we can't make we can source. British Bespoke Workwear has unique relationships with various third parties to offer our customers a large choice of products at great value.
- We can personalise your garments with embroidery, heat seal badges and screen printing.
